

I would like to let you know of the support I have for the K-LOVE station which is aired over current FM translator service. K-LOVE lets me know of Christian national and state observations that I can connect with in my own local area. I believe this station is in the public interest. It is a safe, family-oriented station which my children can listen to with no worries about inappropriate material. Please preserve the current translator service. Thank you. Shannon McFall